the holy rites of matrimony between Mr. A. E. and Miss Ethel N. Adams, spiritual ceremony making this was pronounced by the the Presbyterian divine, Rev. of Hopkinsville, in impressionable measure.

altar was artistically decorations potted palms and flowers forming a floral bank, which Miss Alma Schnabel, musician of Corydon, Ky., intimate friend of the bride, sat at the organ. Those withing the ceremony were directed to seats by ushers, Coleman of Hopkinsville, and Hinkle of this city.

only before four o'clock the car with the bridal party arrived the church, and while the march was being in the vestibule, Mrs. J. L. song, "I would Live or I'd or You," Miss Schnabel playing accompaniment. As the last note died away, the organ the wedding march, and the party entered, preceded by the one down either aisle. The dants were Misses Melville Akin, Mr. C. A. Graham, Miss Mary Dyer and Mr. S. Wilson Adams.

The bride entered upon the of her grandfather, S. Hodge,

The bride is a native of Marion, Crittenden county, and with her parents Rev. R. H. and Mrs. S. A.
Adams resided in this city, number years ago, her father who died a years later, being at the head the Princeton Collegiate Institute had prepared herself for the profession of a trained nurse, a few years ago taking a post graduate course at Bellevue hospital, New York, and was located at Louisville.

She is a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hodge, this city, and a young lady of rare intellectual gifts and many accomplishments.

The groom is a popular and prosperous young business man of New Decatur, Ala., and greatly interested in Y. M. C. A. work, being assistant secretary of the organization at that place.

The newly wedded couple left Hopkinsville on an early morning train Wednesday for their future home in New Decatur, bearing with them the good wishes of a host of friends.

IN MEMORIAM.

Clara Porter Carnahan passed away January 1, 1910, aged four years and eleven months.

She was a member of the Beginner's class in the Methodist Sunday school, and the first one to pass from our midst into the fold of the loving Shepherd.

"We know he will but keep Our own and his until we fall asleep.
We know he does not mean To break the strands reaching between

The here and there."

She was a bright, affectionate child, ready to greet her teacher with a smile, so we miss her greatly.

We extend our sympathy to her bereaved parents and grandparents.

May the little beconing hands gently guide them to the Father's home.

"I love to think that somewhere, In the country we call heaven,
The land most fair of everywhere

Will unto them be given;

A land of little faces—very little,

very fair—

And every one shall know her own,

And cleave unto it there,

Oh, grant it, loving Father, to The broken hearts that plead!

Thy way is best—yet, oh, to be

In perfect faith indeed!

To know that we shall find them.

Even them, the wee, white dead.

At Thy right hand in Thy bright land,

By the living waters led."

HER S. S. TEACHER.

Notice.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Notice is hereby given that I have this day emancipated and set entirely free my son, Claud Tabor, who will hereafter be permitted to contract and be contracted with, work for himself and to receive and retain his wages therefor. And especial notice is also hereby given that hereafter, I shall not in any way or manner be or become responsible for any debt, default or liability of the said Claud Tabor, and shall not in any way or manner be or become liable for anything that he may purchase, either necessities or other thing whatsoever, neither will I be responsible for any act of any kind of the said Claud Tabor, but shall give him herefore all that he can earn or make and he must pay his own bills and be responsible for his own acts. He is hereby emancipated and given his freedom to do and act for himself, and for his debts, liabilities and acts of whatever kind I am no longer bound. This January 12, 1910.

LETTER FROM HON. MARION F. POGUE

O. WICKER, OF FRANCES PRECINCT ELECTED ASSISTANT CLERK OF THE HOUSE, AFTER A HOT FIGHT

HARMONY PREVAILS AND THE TREASURY IS EMPTY.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10, 1910.
Friend Calmes:

The first week of the legislature is now history. We have seen several assemblies, but some how, this one is to us, the queerest yet, and you may not be surprised if I turn up SOME SURPRISES before the thing is over. Everything and everybody seem so strange, but that may be because we are lost in the New Capital, and have not yet got our bearings.

The New Capitol is to us yet what the city is to the backwoods visitor on his initial trip. It is well worth a trip to see the stately pile. Domes reaching skywards, colossal pillars, symmetric columns, marble walls and massive stairways all lend beauty, strength to this, one of the most splendid structures on the continent.

No Kentuckian can view this building without a feeling of pride, however tight he may hold his own purse strings, he is bound to be glad that "somebody" had it done. And then, no charge of graft, in all the years of building has ever come to make any Kentuckian blush with shame. No graft, no extravagance! How good that sounds, when millions have been squandered in other states and scandals galore.

As to progress, we are now just before going to work. Organization has been perfected with perfect harmony, the Republicans in the House especially with drawing their candidates and voting for the Democratic caucus nominees.

George Wilson, of Union, is making and ideal Speaker of the House; he won without opposition.

All Crittendenites will be glad to know that Oscar Wicker, of Frances precinct, won out for Assistant Clerk of the House, after one of the hottest fights of our life. Well, you must fight if you would win.

Our old friend Bob Aiken has laid his insurance business by long enough to represent the good people of Caldwell county in this session. So will Senator Catlett look after our interests in the Senate Chamber.

I have never before seen harmony tying around in such big chunks—

Democrats and Republicans actually sit together as desk mates, and it was rumored that a pair of these once irreconcilables were seen to take a drink of Old Taylor out of the same flask. But this is only heresy, and I must report these matters as second-handed, because I have taken the pledge, you know.

My dear readers it is indeed a gloomy prospect your servant has before him to-night, howling winds without and snow two-feet deep on every side, an empty treasury already and the land lady cross, perhaps anxious to know where she comes in.

What, run a legislature without money? Yes, that is the way it looks now. Only a half million on hand and it belongs to the teacher of the State.

Oh what a glorious place soon for claim shavers! At the present rate June 15th will find us two million dollars in debt. What shall we do?
Issue bonds or raise the tax rate?
Or what, will you tell me?

Several bills have been offered in the Senate and Tuesday will be bill day in the House, then the flood gates will open and the bills will flow in.

We shall try to keep you posted about the happenings of the capital, and if you don't hear from us for quite a spell, you will know that stamps are out, for times are mighty close up here. Your Servant, MARION F. POGUE.

On Christmas Eve night all Christiandom united in celebrating the greatest event in the history of the world, the birth of our Saviour.

Christmas in Marion churches has always been a great event and this year has been no exception to the rule.

The Presbyterian Sunday School rendered a special program in the auditorium of the Main street church which was pronounced, by all present, the best ever witnessed in the city. Long before the hour for the exercises to begin the large auditorium was full of people, and an air of joyful anticipation pervaded the audience, adults as well as children.

The program rendered was a beautiful one. For the previous two days the students had been rehearsing their parts under the instructions of Mrs.

S. M. Jenkins, assisted by Miss Holmes and Mrs. R. L. Moore, and each little fellow was in love with his part and anxious to carry it out; and the unanimous verdict of the audience was that all did their parts perfectly, and that Mrs. Jenkins and her able assistants had proven themselves masters in the art of training children children.

After the program was over, and the names of each of the one hundred and twenty members of the Sunday School had been called, three different times, each calling taking with it a present from the large and handsome Christmas tree, the Assistant Superintendent, after an appropriate talk, asked the audience to requested for a few minutes, and two baskets of oranges was passed among the audience, and every body present was asked to take some.

After the benediction, the people with their faces bright and shining with love which seems so prevalent during Christmas times, with one accord pronounced the event a grand success, and Mrs. Jenkins was the recipient of many hearty congratulations on her successful management.
The adults as well as the children went out with the story of the babe found in the manger fresh in their minds, and every one was joyful, and more generous and charitable, from having the charm of the Christmas spirit perfected into His life again.

Flour spar business is on the rapid rise in Marion and orders are coming in fast and the demand for the product is at good prices.

As our streets have been blocked for some time with snow, we shall be glad when it is gone.

A meeting is in progress at the Baptist church that bids fair to awaken the town. Rev. Wm. D.
Nowlin is an evangelist with a soul, saving reputation and backed, as he is, by Rev. M. E. Miller, one of the cleverest and best loved little preachers in this end of the state, with good singers from all the churches, there is every reason to expect great blessings from the meeting.

All of the newly elected officers are beginning to look at home in their new possessions and things are moving along smoothly.

W. B. RANKIN NOTIFIES THE STEMMING DISTRICT.

They Must Deliver No Funked Molded Tobacco For Fear Injuring Sales

To the members of the Stemming District Tobacco Association I wish to say. In preparing your tobacco for delivery members should bear in mind, that in our contract with the buyers they were not to take tobacco that is damaged by funk or mold, hail beaten or dirty from being rained on after having been cut. So if you should have any tobacco damaged from the above cause you should separate it from the sound or it will effect the price of the whole lot. In stripping, assort well and keep the long and the short separate.
So the trader can put a proper valuation on your crop. Where tobacco is delivered in mixed lengths he can only estimate at the amount of each.
Whatever you do, do not sprinkle tobacco. The buyers are not compelled to take it until offered in proper condition.

Again let me request that you who are not done stripping to tie in medium sized hands. In selling the Crittenden county pool, your Executive Board promised to do this. If we expect the buyers to comply with their part of the contract, we should be willing to do the same. Believing you will do this, as good, loyal members, I remain,

Yours truly,
W. B. RANKIN,
Chairman Crittenden Co.

REV. CYRUS BRADY TOWN-SEND

Of Kansas City, Writes the Island

CHURCH IS CONDEMNED BY THE PRESS.

The board of directors of the Toledo public library barred "The Island of Regeneration," written by the Rev.
Cyrus Townsend Brady, rector of St.
George's Episcopal church, Kansas City, and the women members of his Kansas City church are mad about it.
One woman, the Kansas City public librarian, says: "The fact that Dr Brady wrote it assures me that it is all right. We have two copies that are always out, and five more or derred."

A woman, being a victim of impulse, is not a proper person to say what the people shall, or shall not read, is she?

This woman says the book is "all right because Dr. Brady wrote it." evidently in the blind belief that a preacher can do no wrong. The illustrations in the book are enough to condemn it, even if a preacher wrote it with prayers before sharpening his pencil. In "The Island of Regeneration," a man lives on a desert island all alone. He has never seen a woman; he has never heard of a woman, and doesn't know what kind of a creature it is, when one day a woman is shipwrecked on his island. She sees that the man has the purity of ignorance, and also that her clothes will not last if she wears them, and also that the climate is so balmy she doesn't need any. So she appears to him with nothing on but a few leaves draped from her waist down. This picture appears in the book, but of course there is nothing wrong in it, because a preacher wrote it. She is aware of man's weakness, being of the world, but relies on his ignorance for her protection.
And she reasons that all the emotions to which she was subject were in her own bosom; that the man before her neither knew nor cared for the things which vexed her. So she went on."

Which means, in every day talk, that she went on saving her clothes. She didn't know that the man knew, without being told, and that he followed her at night to the door of her cave and then because she trusted him, turns back, "face white in the moonlight, drops of sweat beading his brow, from the violence of his effort." You know what happened finally. She didn't put on her clothes and sail away, and he didn't forget that he was a Gentleman. But she forgot she was a Perfect Lady, and one night when he was wrestling with his emotions, she came to him, and the librarian of the Kansas City library says there is nothing wrong in the recital of what happened "because Dr. Brady wrote it."

In another picture, the woman dressed only in her wreath of leaves, lies in the man's arms. He is also saving his clothes, and is giving her the soul kiss. The story is a story of disgusting lust; it doesn't awaken a good sentiment in the mind of the reader, and is calculated to awaken many that are vile, and that it is all right because a preacher wrote it shows a blind confidence in preachers belonging several generations back. Dr. Brady should be ashamed of himself; and the board of directors of the Toledo library de-

CASE AFTER CASE.

Plenty More Like This in Marion.

Scores of Marion people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here's a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement.

Jane Byford, Marion, Ky., says:

"I was greatly benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills and consequently I am in position to recommend them. My kidney trouble was brought on by exposure, together with a great deal of hard work. I suffered from the complaint for two years. I was unable to rest well on account of the dull pains through my back and in the morning I arose feeling very stiff. When I stooped sharp twinges seized me and caused intense suffering. I tired easily, felt very nervous and had dizzy spells and head aches. I knew from the sediment in the kidney secretions that my kidneys were disordered and a frequent desire to pass the secretions at night also proved this fact. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store, I have improved a great deal in every way. I have no hesitation in recommending this remedy as one that lives up to representations."

CHANCES FOR HENDERSON DAM

Look Bright Since Washington Visit Kentucky and Indiana Delegations.

STANLEY A HARD WORKER—NEXT TO 'OUR OLLIE' GREATEST OF ALL

Washington, Jan. 8.—Western Kentucky and Southwestern Indiana's chief business men appeared to-day before the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors to tell why the next improvement on the Ohio river should take the form of a dam No. 29, the Big Sandy mouth project would be built. This is the cause in which a Ninth district delegation will be heard on Monday. Judge Posey, Col. Vance, J. E. Gunter, of Owensboro; B. S. Witt; A. Waller R. W. Ball and N. Powell Taylor, of Henderson, spoke. At one juncture of the hearing, Posey declared that water was needed in Western Kentucky to raise other things than "corn and hell."

The hearing occupied most of the morning and this afternoon the three cities' delegation interviewed Gen. W. L. Marshall, chief engineer of the army, who favors dredging a channel rather than building a dam.

In addition to these, Col. John L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association; Representative Ollie M. James, of the First Kentucky district; Representative A. O. Stanley, of the Second; Representative John Boehne, of the First Indiana, and former Representative Frank B. Posey, of the First Indiana, appeared in behalf of the dam.

The committee looked favorably upon the project for which, among others, the following arguments were presented.

The Henderson dam is the only one recommended by the Army Board of Review of 1908 that is yet unbuilt.

Its construction will save $50,000 a year in wrecked shipping at Henderson.

It will give access to the natural and unique ice harbor at the mouth of Green river.

All Kentucky wants it built. Southern Indiana wants it built. Line Up Two Members.

The Kentucky delegations had last night secured the aid of two members of the Rivers and Harbors Committee at a dinner given the visiting Kentuckians by Representative Stanley. Here, in addition to the laymen, were gathered some of the most notable public men of the country—Col. Vance, Representative James, Representatives Underwood and Clayton, of Alabama; Representatives Pell and Burgess, of Texas; Representative Bowers, of Mississippi and Representative Tener, of Pennsylvania former Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks. Tener and Burgess, members of the committee, then pledged themselves to the Henderson dam.

At the very outset of the hearing, Representative Alexander Nye, chairman of the committee, remarked that there was no need to dwell on the Eastern Kentucky situation, as dam No. 29, the Big Sandy mouth project would be built. This is the cause in which a Ninth district delegation will be heard on Monday. Judge Posey, Col. Vance, J. E. Gunter, of Owensboro; B. S. Witt; A. Waller R. W. Ball and N. Powell Taylor, of Henderson, spoke. At one juncture of the hearing, Posey declared that water was needed in Western Kentucky to raise other things than "corn and hell."

In addition to these, Col. John L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association; Representative Ollie M. James, of the First Kentucky district; Representative A. O. Stanley, of the Second; Representative John Boehne, of the First Indiana, and former Representative Frank B. Posey, of the First Indiana, appeared in behalf of the dam.

In addition to these, Col. John L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association; Representative Ollie M. James, of the First Kentucky district; Representative A. O. Stanley, of the Second; Representative John Boehne, of the First Indiana, and former Representative Frank B. Posey, of the First Indiana, appeared in behalf of the dam.

Woman's Power Over Man

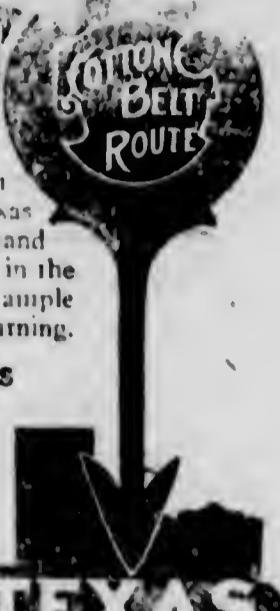

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regenerates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG. SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

COTTON BELT FARES

On the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month, very low fare round trip tickets will be sold via the Cotton Belt Route to points in Atlanta, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. The advantage of these low fares and inexpensive round trip opportunities now open in the Southwest. The 25 day return limit gives you ample time, and you can stop over both going and returning.

The Direct Line to Texas

The Cotton Belt is the direct line from Memphis to the Southwest, through Arkansas. It operates two daily trains, coming through sleepers, observation cars and parlor-cars to each. Trains from all points only three hours apart from Memphis with Cotton Belt trains connecting.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it, Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifling with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with Indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to Indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhea, headaches, dullness or chronic throat feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin ("dyspepsia tablets," "physic," etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A. B. C.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the contents of the bottle, if you can honestly say, "I have not digested any food, return the bottle to the druggist, and he will refund your money without question or delay." We will then pay the druggist double price. Don't hesitate, all druggists know the compensation is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the tiny cent bottles.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

COUNTY COURT CONVENED
MONDAY

Notwithstanding the Cold Weather
There was a Big Crowd in Town Proving a Busy Day.

THE WILL OF R. W. WILSON WAS PROBATED.

Monday dawned bright and clear, with the mercury too close to zero for one to be comfortable, and yet the people from all over Crittenden, Webster, Caldwell, Livingston and Union counties were in evidence, so that by noon the streets were alive with busy stock buyers and traders.

Judge Rochester made four sales of real estate as commissioner and Sheriff Asher several as tax collector.

The principle business before the County Judge was the appointing of three men constituting the Board of Processioners. They were: I. C. Hughes, W. A. Woodall and H. S. Hill.

The will of the late R. W. Wilson was probated, in which he leaves all of his property to his widow. Having heretofore made a division of his property to his two children, Mrs. S. M. Jenkins and John W. Wilson, he leaves the residue to his wife and naming her as executrix without bond to have and to hold, sell and convey at her will and to use as she desires. The will was a very brief document and yet satisfactory, conveying his every wish.

Judge Blackburn convened court on Tuesday evening to try A. D. Moon, an old civil war veteran, for incompetency for managing his affairs. Mr. Moon is 80 years old and has been blind for six or seven years in consequence of which he has been drawing a pension of $100.00 per month. A jury composed of twelve good men adjudged him incapable for the handling of his money yesterday on business.

and the care of his property, whereupon the Court appointed a guardian for him. God bless the old soldier. There was a time when he rushed to the thickest of the fight, with undaunted courage and a clear eye. Such men are to be looked upon through eyes dimmed with tears.

A WRETCHED MISTAKE to endure the itching, painful distress of Piles. There's no need to listen. "I suffered much from Piles," writes Will. A. Marsh, of Siler City, N. C., "still I got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon cured." Burns, Boils, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Eczema, Catarrh, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, vanish before it. 25 cents at J. H. When Grip attacks, as you value your life, don't delay getting Dr. King's New Discovery.

"One bottle cured me," writes A. L. Dunn, of Pine Valley, Miss., "after being laid up three weeks with Grip." For sore, lungs, Hemorrhages, Coughs, Colds Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, its supreme. 50c, $1.00. Guaranteed by J. H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

gave Nebuchadnezzar "another heart" but it was the heart of a beast. The Bible does not say God gave Samuel a "new heart," the heart of a regenerated man. It is true that David did many wrong things, but how deeply he repented of his wickedness, and how penitently did he pray God to deliver him from blood-guiltiness. But he never fell from Grace, he simply lost for a while the joys of salvation, as he expressed it, but he never lost salvation itself, for every one admits that he was saved. No man will deny that Solomon, at one period of his life, was a dissolute, licentious man, but that he was finally lost no one can prove, and but few have the cheek to affirm. The fact is, the evidence is to the contrary; for in the latter part of his life he confessed that "all was vanity and vexation of spirit." The conclusion of the whole matter with him was, "Fear God and keep his commandments" and live. He was permitted to write three books of the Bible, which shows conclusively that he was willing, like a true Christian to confess his sins and repent of them.

I admit that Peter was a Christian, had been "born again," but I deny that he fell from grace, and that he was finally saved as all will admit.

Brother Hill also places Samson among the lost. Samson prayed and God answered his petition, which shows that Sampson was saved now. Dear Bro. Hill, if these men who, you claim, fell from Grace, we will see where their location is at present. "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened and have tasted of the heavenly gift and made partakers of the Holy Ghost, if they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance." Rom. 4: 4-6. This scripture fixes your theory of being born into the Kingdom of God more than once. Now, God says, "In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." "And I say also unto thee, Thou art Peter, and upon this rock will I build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Matt. 16: 18. "I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." John 10: 28.

Now, my dear brother, I will make you this proposal. That you select 12 passages of scripture and I will do the same. We will base our argument upon them. If you will do this we shall see whether my creed is wrong or your "head full of theology" is wrong.

J. R. KING.

Miss Rosa Bradburn, who, some time ago, went to Evansville to seek employment, was stricken with disease and the Evansville authorities, refusing her right as a charge of the city or county, was returned to Marion in almost a dying condition. She was cared for here at the expense of a private boarding house until death a few days ago, relieved her of her suffering. She was some fond mothers girl who, perhaps, had been kind enough in her life, to others that her daughter might have been saved a paupers grave. Her time for rejoicing will be great indeed when she finds the poorest of earth, the richest in God's Kingdom.

Dr. R. L. Moore was called to Louisville Tuesday on business.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Of Importance to The People of Marion

Haynes & Taylor desire to announce to the readers of the Record Press that they have been able to secure the agency for Parisian Sage, the marvelous dandruff cure and delightful hair dressing.

Haynes & Taylor are glad to state that Parisian Sage is rigidly guaranteed hair invigorator.

It cures dandruff in two weeks by killing the dandruff microbes. It stops falling hair, itching scalp and splitting hair or money back.

It is a most pleasant hair dressing especially for ladies, as it causes the hair to grow in thickly and makes it luxuriant and lustrous. The price is only 50 cents a large bottle at Haynes & Taylor's.

Answer This Question

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured numerous cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are two letters which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Fitchville, Ohio.—"My daughter was all run down, suffered from pains in her side, head and limbs, and could walk but a short distance at a time. She came very near having nervous prostration, had begun to cough a good deal, and seemed melancholy by spells. She tried two doctors but got little help. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills she has improved so much that she feels and looks like another girl." —Mrs. C. Cole, Fitchville, Ohio.

Irasburg, Vermont.—"I feel it my duty to say a few words in praise of your medicine. When I began taking it I had been very sick with kidney and bladder troubles and nervous prostration. I am now taking the sixth bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find myself greatly improved. My friends who call to see me have noticed a great change." —Mrs. A. H. Sanborn, Irasburg, Vermont.

We will pay a handsome reward to any person who will prove to us that these letters are not genuine and truthful—or that either of these women were paid in any way for their testimonials, or that the letters are published without their permission, or that the original letter from each did not come to us entirely unsolicited.

What more proof can any one ask?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

TO OUR FRIENDS--GREETING

In contemplating the events of the past year, we are moved to a feeling of gratitude and thanks to Providence for the many blessings we have been privileged to enjoy, and also thankful and grateful to our many friends and patrons who have honored us with their favors and confidence. We now extend to them our best wishes for the coming year, which we hope will be one of happiness and prosperity.
